SplitSplit

Research evidence appendix

About the survey

We surveyed students living with roommates to understand how they keep track of shared household expenses and calculate what others owe.

Summary of responses

13 total survey respondents

12 shared household costs in the past 3 months

9 currently use Telegram or another messenger to track expenses

10 reported difficulty working out debts at least once in 3 months

Source file

Shared Living Expenses in Tashkent — Google sheets

The original Excel response file should be provided alongside this Word document or linked in the final submission.

Evidence is based on the survey responses; results are not a representative estimate of all students in Tashkent.